

WESTERN FAIRS ASSOCIATION

2008 HONORARY LIFETIME NOMINATION

Mission – The Honorary Lifetime program recognizes both retired professionals and volunteers who have made significant contributions to the fair industry in North America by awarding them honorary lifetime membership in Western Fairs Association.

Benefits – Honorary lifetime members receive a perennial credential, which is accepted by WFA member fairs for gate admission. These members will also be eligible for member rates of any and all WFA programs. Honorary lifetime members will also receive a complimentary subscription to WFA Fair Dealer and newsletter, if requested.

Criteria – To qualify for Honorary Lifetime Membership, the nominee shall:

1. Be a former WFA member fair manager, fair board director, fair staff member, service member, or other individuals who have proven significant contributions to the fair industry;
2. Have been affiliated with a WFA member fair or fair-related business for a minimum of eight years; and,
3. No longer be an eligible dues-paying member of WFA.

Nomination Procedure – To nominate an individual for Honorary Lifetime Membership, complete the form below and return with a resume of the individual's accomplishments. Only two nominations per member annually will be accepted.
